

About the Branch County Community Foundation

Branch County Community Foundation is a nonprofit organization created by and for the people of Branch County and Colon. We offer a range of flexible giving tools to help our donors make a positive impact on the community and causes that align with their interests and passions. In addition to first-rate donor service, we manage our community's permanent endowment and award grants to address the community's most pressing needs.

HOW IT WORKS

Individuals, families and businesses make gifts to existing funds or to establish new funds at the community foundation. Gifts come in all shapes and sizes.

These gifts are pooled together and invested for long-term growth. Most funds at the community foundation are endowed.

A portion of the growth is available each year for grants to nonprofit organizations and to support collaborative leadership activities to find solutions to community challenges.

3 DISTINCTIVE FEATURES OF OUR COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

PERSONALIZED SERVICE.

We make giving easy and effective, accepting a wide variety of gifts and providing donors a number of charitable options. You can contribute cash, stocks, property and bequests. You may establish a fund in your name or in the name of a loved one. In most cases, your gift qualifies for maximum tax advantages under federal law.

LOCAL EXPERTISE.

We have an in-depth understanding of the issues, opportunities and resources that shape our community. We monitor all areas of community need—including human services, education, the environment, healthcare, the arts and economic development. We can help you learn more about local organizations and programs that make a difference in the areas you care about most.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP.

Through our grantmaking, we invest in the long term and bring people and organizations together, convening diverse voices to address local issues and opportunities. Our business is in building community and helping the places we call home continue to flourish and grow.
