

Nathan Clipfell represents the Colon, Michigan service area of the Branch County Community Foundation!

Nathan resides in Colon with his wife Allison and their five children. He is the Owner of Magic Capital Grille in Colon, Michigan, where he leads with a servant-minded approach focused on people, relationships, and excellence. Nathan also serves as a Trustee on the Colon School Board. This experience and passion drive Nathan's mission in strengthening education, community partnerships, and local opportunities.

When asked of his upcoming service on the BCCF Board, Nathan said, "Family is my greatest motivation, and I strive every day to be a positive example for my wife and children while making a meaningful, lasting impact in the community I call home."