

Karmen is a native and long-time resident of Coldwater. She graduated from Coldwater High School and went on to receive a degree from The Business College of Indiana. She now resides in Coldwater with her son, Wayne, and her partner, Jason.

Karmen is involved with many organizations around Branch County. She has been a member of Altrusa for 12 years where she served as president for one year. She is also a current Board member for the Branch County Children's Museum, a member of the Coldwater Community Schools Booster Club and the Branch County Association of Realtors and is also on the Board of Review for Kinderhook Township. She is an advocate for her community and loves philanthropy.

Karmen is the owner of Case Realty Group and has vast experience in the real estate industry. She looks to bring her knowledge of Charitable Giving experience to the Branch County Community Foundation and foresee new opportunities for donor growth.

When she is not selling real estate, you can find her cheering on her son on the basketball court, football field and golf courses. Karmen, Jason, and Wayne enjoy traveling, golf, ski trips and time at the lake with family and friends.
