

Keely A. Beemer is a Branch County native, growing up in Coldwater, Michigan. She received her undergraduate degree from the James Madison College of Michigan State University in Political Theory in 2011 with an additional degree concentration in Ag Business. Graduating Magna Cum Laude, she received her Juris Doctor from WMU Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 2015. Ms. Beemer is an attorney with the law offices of Bird, Scheske, Reed & Beemer, P.C. located in Coldwater and Sturgis, Michigan. Keely resides in Union City with her husband Aaron and daughter Gwynn and loves spending time with family while working together on their family farms. She has been a member of the Branch County Community Foundation Board since 2017, is currently serving as Vice President of the Branch County 4-H Leader's Council, and enjoys running and staying active in her free time.