

Jenn has been a member of the Union City community for 45 years. She and her husband, Steve, raised four children just north of town before moving into the village six years ago.

A graduate of Spring Arbor University, with a bachelor degree in education and a masters in counseling, Jenn was a teacher in Union City for 19 years before joining the Branch Intermediate School District as a Career Development Coordinator. She now is the Administrator for Career Development and the Branch County Early College.

Jenn's board experience includes the Union City Community School Board and the Michigan School Counselor Association. She has served on many sub-committees for the Michigan Department of Education through the Office of Career and Technical Education.

"Steve and I love Union City and Branch County. We enjoy watching the donations to the BCCF benefit students and communities alike. The Senior Center in Union City is a project that is special to our hearts, and helping students navigate the world of education after high school is a passion of mine. I look forward to learning and serving on the BCCF Board, thank you for the opportunity!"
